AN ALLEGED JERSEY FIEND INCARNATE.

Waiter Scott, a respectable looking middle-aged resident of Harrison township, N. J., was temporarily incarcerated yesterday in the Newark lock-up and subsequently taken to the Hudson county and subsequently taken to the Hudson county jail pending examination on an appalling charge. Five weeks ago his wife died, and since then he has conducted himself in an extraordinary manner. His daughter, a girl of about twelve, communicated some facts to a cilizen about her father, herself and a girl named Lizzle Smith, and he, in turn, told Justice Green, who caused the daughter to be brought before him, when she made a statement charging her father with the most horrid of ordines. Mr. Scott denies the allegations in toto, and declares they are gotten up with a view to extorting money out of him.

HOW THE EXCISE LAW WORKS.

Attempted Murders, Cutting Affrays, Felonious Assaults and Highway Robberies-Sunday Rum-Lively State of Things.

Under the law the verbal declarations and printed pronunciamentos of the new Board of Excise Com-missioners the public was led to believe that they would take especial pains to see that the law was enforced in its letter and spirit. For a few weeks after they assumed the reins crime decreased, but during the past two weeks it has been rapidly on the increase. Some persons who have observed the workings of the law declare that there is very little attempt made by many liquor dealers to close on the Sabbath; that at at a late hour on Sunday morning they turn out into the streets the scum of the city, mad with rum, to fight, cut, shout and kill.

As the result of twenty-four hours, commencing

Saturday night at ten o'clock and ending last night at ten, the following exhibit is given:—

At twenty minutes to four o'clock yesterday morning, when ordinary mortals were asleep and dreaming, John Carwin, of 29 Oak street, was up and engaged in a fracas with Mary Hayes, residing in the same house. The result of the muss was that Mary got dangerously cut with a knife, and had to be removed to Bellevue Hospital. Carwin was taken to the Tombs Police Court and held to await the result of the Injuries.

A SCALPING CASE.

John S. O'Connor, of No. 78 Crosby street, a printer, was yesterday assaulted by John May in front of No. 22 New Chambers street. May struck O'Connor on the head with some sharp instrument, cutting off a portion of his scaip. An officer came up in time to prevent further mutilation of the unfortunate O'Connor and arrested May. The prisoner was taken before Alderman Moore, at the Tombs Police Court, and locked up, the complainant being unable to appear.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.

The Twenty-second precinct police report that a few minutes after eleven o'clock Saturday evening, while Ann Brady, of 457 West Forty-second street, was emerging from the grocery store at that number she was shot by one Joseph Farrell, of 455 West Forty-second street, who is a brother of Farrell who d stinguished himself in the riots of 1863. Farrell had just come out of the lager beer saloon at No. 455 very drunk, and it is supposed intended the pullet for Christian Frelse, proprietor of the lager beer saloon, with whom he has not been on friendly terms. The wound of the woman is not considered dangerous, although it passed through one thigh and lodged in the muscles of the other. Farrell made his escape, but will likely be secured.

Between tweive and one o'clock yesterday morning John McNespie, aged eighteen years, was found by an officer of the Eighth precinct, corner of Grand and Greene streets, with a severe stab wound in the mp. He was taken to the Prince street station house, where the wound was dressed by Police Surgeon Donor. He declined to state who inflicted the injury upon him.

nouse, where the wound was dressed by Police Surgeon Donor. He declined to state who inflicted the injury upon him.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.

The Seventh precinct report that, at forty minutes after two o'clock yesterday morning, Peter Hyland, of No. 409 Madison street, was seriously cut in the face and on one of his ears by one John Shelly, during a fight in Cherry street. His wounds were dressed and he was locked up. At a later hour of the morning Shelly, it is alleged, fearfully beat one Thomas W., Keeley, of 60 Ratgers street, in which he was assisted by a rough named Barney Carroll. Carroll, Shelly and the barkeeper, Peter Walsh, were arrested by the police and arraigned yesterday before Justice Ledwith, at Essex Market. The charge of feloniously cutting Hyland was not sustained, but Shelly and Carroll were held for trial on complaint of Keeley. Walsh was bailed in the sum of $100 to answer a charge of violating the excise.

ROBBERY AND ATTEMPT TO TAKE LIFE.

About half-past nine last evening Thomas Gallagher, of the Twenty-second ward, entered the saloon

About half-past nme last evening Thomas Gallagher, of the Twenty-second ward, entered the saloon of James Gallagher, No. 753 Sixth avenue, called for drinks, swallowed them and refused to liquidate his account. A quarrel ensued, when Tom Gallagher attacked the keeper of the saloon stabbed him twice in the cheek and robbed him of fifteen dollars. The wound is a severe but not dangerous one. The victim was sent to Bellevue Hospital, and Tom Gallagher was arrested and locked up in the West Forty-sixth street station house.

JOURDAN ON THE ROUNDS.

Superintendent Jourdan yesterday afternoon made an extensive tour of the city, in cog., and witnessed some queer sights. His investigations will be embodied in charges made before the Board. Sergeants, captains, roundsmen and Board. Sergeants, captains, roundsmen and patrolmen, should remember that Jourdan always has a "stop watch," if he does not have a carriage and several extra suits of clothing, Jourdan may profitably take a hint by last night's experiences. "When the cat's away the mice will play." Was Jourdan at a telegraph instrument at mdnight when a reporter was in charge of the instruments at the Central Office?

Wind at sunset SE, light. Shipping Notes.

For the past ten days a dense fog has enveloped the Atlantic, from Cape Hatteras to Halifax, proving a source of the greatest annoyance and danger to the fleets whose routes of service have called them within such latitudes. The scores of vessels bound to New York which within the time referred of vessels bound to New York which within the time referred to have approached the coast, fell in with this, to them, great enemy, and, consequently, were detained to an extent beyond precedent. The officers of steamships and saling craft alike bear testimony to this, and say that the fog is the worst they have experienced for years, and it is so dense that it settles upon the rigging and drops therefrom like rain. It has caused a partial interruption to the business of this port, inasmuch as a fleet of vessels ready to go to sea have been and are now detained at anchorage off Staten Island and thence to Sandy Hook, awaiting the lifting of the unwelcome visitant before they can depart, as there is also a fleet of inward bound craft anxious to reach this port, and detained outside by the same cause. Fortunately, but one accident has as yet been reported as resulting from this cause, that being of a slight nature. The schooner Carleton, from Eleuthera, when eight miles from the lightship off Sandy Hook, was run into by an unknown steamship, carrying away her foretopmast and jibboom, besides doing other slight damage. Last evening the fog penetrated farther inland, and after shutting out Staten Island and Governor's Island from the river side observers, settled upon the North Island from the river side observers, settled upon the North and East rivers, making navigation by the ferryboats decidedly unpleasant to the pilots and dangerous to passengers. At the present writing, however, no accident from the latter source has, fortunately, been reported. Marine Disasters.

BARK PALACE (Br), Jones, from Liverpool for Galveston, with an assorted cargo, went ashore Wednesday night, June I, near San Luis Pass. She draws 13 feet, and lies in 10 feet of water. The P is the vessel that went ashore in Galveston Bay in the storm of October, 1867. MILFORD, May 23—The lower top and topgaliant masts and yards attached, very much burnt, apparently of an American vessel, about 1000 tons burthen, wire rigging, from work red, were towed in last night.

Miscellancous.
We are indebted to Purser Walter Pym, of the steamship Herman Livingston, from Savannah, for his attentions.
